Built in 1983, this property offers a unique opportunity for those seeking a seaside home with the charm of the past and the potential for customization.

Property Features

- Size: The property spans a total of 156 m². Each home features 78 m² of built area, including an 11.80 m² front porch (north-facing) and a 5.85 m² rear porch (south-facing).
- Layout: Each home comprises 3 bedrooms, a bathroom, a kitchen, and a living-dining room.
- Terraces: Enjoy the outdoors on the terraces with stunning sea views.
- Garage: The property includes a spacious 64 m² garage, divided into two sections of 32 m² each, providing ample space for parking and storage.
- Coastal Regulation: While the property does not infringe on the Public Maritime-Terrestrial Domain (DPMT), it is subject to the protective and transit easement zones. This means the house can be reformed, and its layout modified, but the construction volume cannot be increased.
