Description

Mediterranean villa in the upper area of Altea la Vieja, between the Bernia mountain range and the sea.

Located in an area with abundant vegetation, away from traffic noise, with unobstructed views and a south-facing orientation.

The property has two closed garages of 26 m² and 50 m², a 24 m² outdoor auxiliary house, and a vegetable garden with citrus trees.

The constructed area is 272 m², plus 280 m² of terraces, and a 3,325 m² plot.

The house was completely renovated in 2025: new electrical and plumbing installations, refinished floors, SATE facades, PVC exterior carpentry with double glazing, and oak interior carpentry.

Featured Installations:

- Video surveillance and video intercom
- Alarm system
- Home automation
- Water softener
- Mitsubishi multi-split air conditioning
- SIBER mechanical ventilation system with heat recovery
- AJAX flood detection and prevention system with solenoid valve for water shutoff
