Description

Nestled on an exclusive south-facing plot in Torre Ambolo, Jávea, with sea views, VILLA LAUREL is a contemporary home that combines luxury, comfort, and style in a privileged natural setting.

This Mediterranean design project stands out for its clean and bright architecture, designed to blend with the landscape and maximize the indoor-outdoor living experience.

The home is spread over two floors: the upper floor houses four bedrooms and three bathrooms, all designed to offer privacy, spaciousness, and natural light.

On the main floor, the living spaces open completely to the outdoors, with a spacious living room, open kitchen with a central island, dining room, and direct access to the large terraces and pool.
